

MENU

The Coach and Horses has an award-winning chef with a particular interest in recreating period cuisine. The menu offered, for just 20 guineas (£21), is typically Edwardian and heartily recommended, but please RSVP to telegrams@newsheridanclub.co.uk so the chef has an idea of numbers. A vegetarian option and bar snacks will also be available.

Beef Consommé

Hand-Raised Hot-Water Crust Pigeon and Venison Pie, Broad Beans, New Potatoes

Etonian Mess of Gooseberries and Strawberries

Welsh Rarebit

PRIZES

Here are some of the desirable gewgaws we will be giving away on the night. There will be at least three competitions—a Pipe Smoking Competition (the winner being the entrant who can keep a briar smouldering the longest without relighting), a Smoke-Ring Blowing Competition and the “Pin the Cigar on Winston Churchill” Competition. In addition there is the Grand Raffle; entry to the latter is FREE but to Members only, including those joining on the day. For Membership details, see www.newsheridanclub.co.uk. Prizes for all these include:

A velvet smoking cap from James Lock of St James’s, undoubtedly the world’s finest hatter

A chrome cigarette case with integral lighter and a vintage bakelite cigarette holder

A silver-plated cigar cutter accompanied by a Romeo y Julieta Churchill cigar

A 300ml bottle of Tabac eau de cologne

A copy of The Pipe Book by Alfred Dunhill, rare in this country

A copy of Tobacco: A Cultural History of How an Exotic Plant Seduced Civilization by Iain Gately

A box of tobacco ganache chocolates from L’Artisan du Chocolat

A Nicotinia sylvestris pot plant

For the lady wishing to escape all this tobacco nonsense, an Aloe Vera Bathing Benefits collection courtesy of Crabtree & Evelyn
